LAHORE: The Canteen Stores Department (CSD), a super market network of the armed forces, has announced a special discount up to 20 percent on over 500 products for all the visitors during the holy month of Ramazan throughout the country. Official sources said that CSD Managing Director Maj Gen Anwar Saeed Khan had approved the special discount of up to 20 percent at all its outlets across the country. People have welcomed the decision of the CSD management allowing special discount. The facility, which was exclusively for the armed forces, has now been extended the civilians as well. Now the visitors can buy best quality grocery, food, garments, wooden furniture, fresh fruits, vegetables and other household items at reasonable rates. Mall Super Market Senior Manager Lt Col (r) Zafar Iqbal Khan said that on the special directive of the MD, latest varieties of all products had been made available at the stores for the convenience of the visitors. He claimed that best quality products at cheaper prices than the open market could be purchased from any CSD store. He added that before stocking of products, a high level team would inspect the quality and standard of the products viz-a-viz prices. app
