

Loadshedding of electricity to end in 2017 | Forex, Pakistan

Written by Administrator

Thursday, 01 August 2013 09:15 -

The Council of Common Interest (CCI) on Wednesday approved the new power policy. The meeting of CCI, country's top decision making political outfit, was chaired by Prime Minister Nawaz Sharif and deliberated on the five-year power policy and later approved it. The new power policy envisages a complete end to loadshedding in the country by 2017. The chief ministers of all the four provinces, Federal Finance Minister Ishaq Dar and other ministers concerned attended the meeting. Courtesy: Khaleej Times