

Probe into out of way promotions in PIMS | Forex, Pakistan

Written by Shumaila Ahmed
Monday, 25 March 2013 09:23 -

Islamabad Capital Administration and Development Division (CADD) have started investigation against illegal and out of the way promotions in Pakistan Institute of Medical Sciences. Sources said that action would be taken against 20 PIMS employees who got promoted unlawfully. Such personnel would be sacked from their offices, they added. Two committees will also be constituted to probe the matter. The committees will present their report within one week, sources maintained.

Courtesy: Pakistan Observer